Subject:- Ban on Private Tuitions by the College Teachers.

Circular No. 03 /HE of 2017
Dated : 29 - 06 - 2017

It has come to the notice of Administrative Department that some Assistant/ Associate Professors of various Government Degree Colleges of the State are indulging in practice of Private Tuition.

The involvement of Government employees in abetting the culture of Private Tuition's amounts to serious violation of Civil Services Conduct Rules, besides, having an adverse effect on the dissemination of quality education in the Colleges.

The Department has already imposed a blanket ban on private tuitions by the College teachers vide Circular dated 04-01-2011. Hence, it is reiterated once again that henceforth, no Colleges Teacher shall involve himself/herself in the practice of Private Tuition either before or after the working hours in the Colleges. Further all the Principals of the Government Degree Colleges of the State are hereby directed to ensure that there is total prohibition on the practice of Private Tuitions by College Teachers. Any report to Administrative Department in case of any violation of the instructions shall be viewed seriously and appropriate action under Employee Service Conduct Rules shall be initiated against the erring officers.
